

Table of Contents

Editorial: The neo-liberal economic revolution and education Charl Wolhuter, JL (Hannes) van der Walt	1
Neo-liberalism and the human rights creed: Conflicting forces vying for control of the global education agenda Charl Wolhuter, JL (Hannes) van der Walt	1–9
Structure and agency: Clash or complement towards quality public education within the South African legislative framework? Nontsha Liwane, JP Rossouw	1–12
Well-being for whom? Unpacking the teacher well-being discourse of the South African Department of Basic Education Erika Kruger	1–8
Educators' subjective experiences of workplace bullying within a perceived neoliberalist education system Lynette Jacobs, Kevin LG Teise	1–9
The effect of the ideology of new managerial professionalism on the South African education system Daniella Coetzee	1–9